LIBERTY UTILITIES TO PRESENT ANNUAL CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTION TO THE UNITED WAY

JOPLIN, MO – February 27, 2019 – Liberty Utilities will announce their 2018 – 2019 United Way campaign results and make a special presentation to the United Way organizations in their service territory at 2 p.m. Friday, March 1, 2019. The presentation will be held at the Riverton Power Station located at 7240 SE, Hwy 66, Riverton, KS, west of Joplin.

Blake Mertens, Vice President of Electric Operations, served as the 2018 United Way Southwest Missouri Campaign Drive Chairman. “We are very excited to present this year’s campaign contributions to the United Way. I’d like to thank all our employees for their generosity and work to make this year’s campaign a success. By donating to the United Way, we know our proceeds are going to help those in need here at home, and that’s part of our ongoing commitment to community,” Mertens says.

Members of the media are encouraged to attend.
